Name:	Member Number:	Please describe your main reasons for either recommending or not recommending the product	Best Feature(s):	Suggested Improvement(s):	Additional Comments:
Candace Mogle	20069919	I recommend due to the fact it has cleared space in my cabinet. But think the price is a little steep, due to the fact that you get only 6 jars.	Space saver.	Lower price.
Robert Lezenby	20079098	This item is much handier than going to my spice pantry to retrieve items. I have this item stocked with the spices I use most.	The magnetic holder is the best feature. The bottles just snap in the proper place.	Make the hole size easier to operate.
denise savard	20069157	the magnets are stong and hold properly under the cupboard. They are really easy to use and convenient we needed.	I am really please with the magnets and the fact that we don't have to open the lid when we are ready to use the spices are the 2 aspects that impress me the most with the use of this rack.		really good creation.
Rosalie Cesputiglo	20136801	I found the installing strip not holding. With only 6 bottles, it didn't seem worthwhile to install, but I did try.
Janina Pacunski	51211549	I filled the containers with the spices I use on a regular basis. I found that it is really easy to grab, sprinkle and replace without having to unscrew or pop open the top. It's also really nice that it mounts under the cupboard and that makes it easy for my kids to reach the cinnamon they like to add to their cereal in the morning. I also don't have to worry about them adding too much because I can control the amount that comes out.	Ease of use	N/A	I think this is a really great product. I especially like the ease of use and the fact that I'm comfortable with my kids using it, too.
Louise Tye	20072163	The backing that you have on it could a little stronger	It out of the way	Better sticky stuff on it to put the cabinet
Joan Knickerbocker	50985689	I feel the containers are too large and since spices deteriorate quickly would encourage keeping them long after their effectiveness was gone. Because the containers are set at a particular point by the hole size and presumably would be left open to that hole size, the effectiveness of the spice could be compromised. Having the containers easily accessible by having them hung under a cabinet could be convenient for some cooks. I use so many spices, I would still need other places to store them. Having a space to hang the rack that does not interfere with other counter use could be a problem. I also use a mortar and pestle to grind some of my spices and most of that sort would not fit through the holes in the top.	Convenience of hanging the containers under a cabinet. Installation is easy.	Smaller containers. Better instructions. Some self grinders such as for pepper.	I might purchase this device for someone who does not use many spices and might find storage difficult inside a cabinet.
Davern	52284846	This is a wonderful product for any kitchen, RV, or Camper where space is limited.	Magnets held in place and jars removed easily when needed.	Other means of attaching other then double sided tape for extra security, i.e., screws, bolts or other mechanical means.
Denise Griffiths	20161915	This is great as I suffer from Arthritis	Real handy to have right at cabinet next to Stove
Patricia Munson	20020175	Total simplicity! Quick to install and start using.	Easy to get to and put back	Thought the price was a little high.
Donna Ivey	20067483	This is great with a magnet attached to the spice caps. It really works easily to take out the spice you need and when done, I would still need other places to store them. Having a space to hang the rack that does not interfere with other counter use could be a problem. I also use a mortar and pestle to grind some of my spices and most of that sort would not fit through the holes in the top.	Magnet - good thinking.	The one thing I would love to see with this product is that they make smaller bottles and instead of 5 spice bottles, you could have 10 of them. This would allow even more convenience for the user.
Shannon Ross	20049934	The instructions were very poor, other than for installation. How are you supposed to adjust the holes, for instance? It is also difficult to select the hole size.	Access when attached to cupboard, for convenient spices. Looks are okay.	the instructions for the size of holes must be much clearer. It does not give you any instructions about the hole size other than on the box.	The magnet lids were okay, but it rally is not a very distinctive product.
Sheila Hantz	20095237	I like that it's right at your finger tips, but off the cabinet.			I think the price is a bit much, but its a good product
Arta Lou D. Kennedy	70436422	Puts your most used spices and herbs close at hand. This product makes it easierto locate the seasoning of choice	The ease and speed to grab and use		The adhesive strip did not stick to the underside of my cabinet so I drilled 3 holes (each end and one in the middle) and screwed the holding strip. If others have had this problem, it might be good to provide this as an alternate manner of installation.
Frances Moore	52150801	Don't believe its a quality product; the variable hole opening is not easy to adjust nor do I believe that without closing the spices will stay fresh. When magnet gets dirty, container will not stay attached as well either.	under the cabinet
Ann Shipley	20060015	The Spice Jars are a good size to keep spices, not too large but large enough so you will not need to continually refill. The best is the space saving especially for compact kitchens and the convenience of use.	under-counter mount	rather than magnet to attach, maybe slides that the lid fits into for a more secure fit
Diane Teeter	5041B273 B		Easy accessibility for use.	If the glass were tinted the spice might keep its freshness longer.	I would need more than one as I use so many different spices on a regular basis.
PAMELA JONES	50390078	THIS WAS THE NEATEST THING! IT WAS SO HANDY TO JUST HANG UNDER MY CABINET BY MY STOVE. NO MORE HUNTING FOR MY FAVORITE SPICES.	SO SO HANDY!!	WISH IT WAS A LITTLE FANCIER LOOKING	THIS WOULD BE HANDY IN SO MANY AREAS. I DO CRAFTS AND IT WOULD BE GREAT TO HOLD LITTLE BEADS, ETC IN. I GREAT PRODUCT!!
Amy Rowles	20055298	I loved how handy the spicer is! You can definitely use it one-handed and it makes it easy when you need the other hand to stir (or whatever). I also liked the way that you can store it up under your cupboard, thus making more room in the cupboard (I have a small kitchen and this is perfect!)	Ease of use	none	Clever idea, and easy to use.
Jennifer Mitchell	20042938	I LOVE this idea. My only problem is the adhesive strip just isn't strong enough. I am going to get a wide strip of velcro tape to replace the adhesive. I think that will keep it from falling off. I put it inside my cabinet all the way to the back to store those spices that tend to get forgotten back there. It makes it way easier to find them.	The magnets really hold the jars in place. Great space saving item. I put it INSIDE the cabinet all the way in the back. Now I can see what I have hiding back there.	Better adhesive strip. The one on the rack just doesn't hold. Also, shorter, wider jars would work better for under to cabinet installations. The jars hang down too far when the rack is under the cabinet. The jar size works well INSIDE the cabinet though.	I will probably be looking at what else this company sells. The product overall is a good idea and I'm curious what else this company makes.
Alison Sheridan-Brennan	20136949	Installs very easily.	The ease of replacing the jar on the holder	The hole size selector was a bit hard to manipulate.
Wendi Colomby	20049488	I found the magnets were of good quality and the jars stayed up there. Yet when taking one down to use the jar was easy to remove and did not stick to it. Secure yet easily removable.	Being able to adjust the amount of spice to be used from the cap was the best feature to me. You could adjust the holes to any size needed.	The labels were difficult to read on the jars. The name of the spice was in red and against the spice it did not show up well at all. If somehow there was white behind the tape it would greatly improve ease of reading spice in the jar.	It needs better instructions on setting up the lids as the way it suggests use doesn't completely match what you do. Says it self adjusts and it didn't seem like smaller sets, or staggered rows. It also that lids close which they don't seem to. But all in all I'm very pleased with this product and use it every day.
D. Wong	201332081	Installation was a snap and the Magic Spicer makes spices within easy reach when cooking.	Easy installation	It's a little difficult to open and close the spice container.
Edward Samuels	20042194	The instructions indicated that these could be used with one hand and that the units were sealed when on the magnets. Lids were hard to open and close - never be able to do with one hand. And the jars were not close enough to the upper magnet that I would consider them sealed. If accidentally knocked off the magnet, then a greater risk of breakage.	I did like the idea of using the magnets to make the spices more readily available and easier to use.	Make the lid easier to operate, stronger magnets and better seal between jar and upper section.
Jane Gugino	20134412	It is easily used with one hand and all the favorite herbs are conveniently located.	Grab and shake!	None	I think this is a great piece of equipment for those of us who use herbs and spices frequently.
Gloria Arnold	20187224	When I got the spice rack I thought it was a great idea. I put it up and then waited 24 hrs and then filled the spice containers. I only filled 3 of the 6 later that evening the whole thing fell, the good thing is the spice jars did not break.	Heavy plastic bottles	needs to have screws to secure to the cabinets instead of a sticky strip kevin fromme	20d84d14	The ease of use is very good. Also, the convenience of having the spices readily available was very good.	Making the spices readily available to be used.	The largest problem that I had with the product was that it was not overly easy to change the dispenser holes. They were not easy to move and the small amount of choices for the different clicks were not very good.
Lilia snider	20109810	I JUST LOVE IT, IT'S HANDY, I'VE GOT MINE RIGHT BY MY COOKING STOVE, JUST REACH UP AND GET IT AND GO WITH IT, I LOVE IT.	IT VERY HANDY TO USE.	I CAN'T THINK OF A THING, I LOVE IT JUST WAY IT IS.	THANKS, FOR LETTING ME TEST THIS PRODUCT.
Robin Wilson	51372976	This product is very handy for your six most frequently used herbs and spices and once the hole size is set it is fine. I did find it a little difficult to turn the part that sets the hole size, however and would not want to have to change the size very often.	One hand operation	Putting some kind of knob to help ease of turning the part to set the hole size would be beneficial. A little fancier design but don't lost the ease of installing	It does interfere with tall appliances etc. on the counters, so you should give some thought to the location in regards to moving them from the back of the counter (for storage) to the front of the counter (for use).
David Gregory	20123513	Easy to install and kept spices convenient and fresh.	easy to install
Christine McAlpine	20008872-6	The product was easy to use and install and kept my spices handy. Being able to install under my cabinets made it really convenient. I liked the clear bottles, making the spices easy to see. The tops have strong magnets. I was doubtful at first, but I filled them with heavy spices and they still performed well.	The magnetic tops were designed nicely, keeping the shaker top function of regular spice bottles.	I would have liked to see this come with both a sticky-back tape and a screw-in installation feature. Just the sticky-back feature makes this less versatile to someone who frequently moves things around in their kitchen as I do. The packaging also looked very cheap, making me doubtful that the product would actually work. There should be a band of white at the bottom. If installed under the cabinets, the spice labels need to go further down on the bottle. Since the labels and bottles are both clear, this makes the labels difficult to read with darker spices. A white band on the bottom to place labels on would eliminate this.
Harry Vanikiotis	50574068	Not recommended. One of the spice bottles arrived with the top disconnected. The small glue used to hold the top together had failed. I just feel the cost of $30 does not measure up to the convenience of the product. I could spend less on six spice grinders than this set.	The only positive feature is the magnetic undercounter attachment.
Susan Schoepfer	20040493	I believe this spice rack is personal preference. The white does not match my kitchen. I would be all for it if it came in either black or stainless. While the product is a good idea, its appearance was not for me.	convenience of replacing spices	variety of colors zelda Carter	20030401	I like reaching for something and returning it without looking and this product allows you to reach out, use and then return the product easily. Sort of like using an iron automatically.	Clear container and magnetic top.	Be more specific on how to adjust the size of the holes.	I would need at least two of these spice racks as I use a lot of spices.
James R. Lillie	20099017	The product makes spices quite convenient.	No more digging around amongst the spice jars or undoing lids.	Have it available in different configurations - like smaller sets, or staggered rows. It barely fit under our cabinet, and only after we sliced the ends off of the magnet panel.	$30 seems a little steep for what you get. I'd think about half that would be appropriate for what you're getting.
Peggy Newsome	52236267	The Magic Spicer was fun to use, and I would recommend it IF you have a place to stick it permanently and it fits your kitchen decor. I used it in my pantry because I had room there and I didn't have that place to hang it in my kitchen.	The Magic Spicer had strong magnets and airtight containers. A real positive.	I have seen stainless containers that are similar. White is good, but other colors and finishes would help match a cook's kitchen.	This is a fun product. I love magnets!
Bonnie Fowler	20112895	I recommend this product for its versatility and ease of use.	set size of dispensing holes and just leave as is on the magnet ready for next use.		I did not use this for spices as designed but my use was for dispensing of cookies and cake decorations. Words so well and I can hardly wait to start christmas baking.
Louise Jones	201587783	The Idea is good, but the problem lies in the fact that there is no way to seal the spice jars. Once the hole size is set, the spices are open to the air. It is very difficult to adjust the hole size by which the spices come out. If one were able to adjust the hole size more easily, it would be a decent product. The fact that 1) the hole size is not easily adjustable and 2) the canister is intended to be left open at the desired hole size, the spices are left open to the elements.		make cap easier to adjust and close.
Pat Cuddy	20155749	This item, while useful, looks cheap and junky. The plastic on the bottles scratches and the labels have the company website. That is tacky.	dial a size for the openings	Make the containers out of glass	I designed my kitchen to have things put away. This design encourages you to display this item and it is not attractive. Someone spending $60,000. on their kitchen would not want to display this item.
judith pinney	20010400	This product is a great idea. It was easy to install and use. My son even said how easy it was to see the spice, use it, then to replace, we both think that it would be great for everyone to have one. We love it!	It's ready to use when you take it off the strip.	Possibly make a set with larger holes so spices like dries garlic & onions could be used. The price seems a bit high also.
Janice Marks	20158885	The instructions on how to actually open & close the holes was very poor. I spent a fair amount of time trying to figure out how to adjust it.	The magnets were quite strong and held the bottles, & once I figured out how to adjust the openings it was quite simple to use. The magnets made it simple to grab & replace the bottle.	One should be careful in the placement (which might be included in the instructions) of the rack because if it is in an area where you are moving things around quite a bit you can accidentally knock a bottle off. Also there are only 6 spice bottles & thought should be given to adding on more at a later date.	The rack overall was quite attractive but the labels should have larger print & should be able to be removed & replaced easily so that you can change what is in them.
Christine Racicot	50855843	The magnet is very handy and I was able to hang the spice rack - leaving room on my counter for other things. I was also able to buy spices in bulk and save some money.	Able to hang so you don't use up counter space.	It's too plain - add some colour, like different colour or coloured containers.	There are a lot of similar products on the market. Didn't see any uniqueness with this product.
Gary Fern	51735015	quality is not what I would put in my Kitchen. It is an item you might put in a fist kitchen but no way worth 29.99	easy to install just sticks in place with adhesive.	make product with glass and metal.	product even has a teens picture on box not a item for most kitchens
ron limbaugh	52213832	I wouldn't recommend this product for in cabinet use or, in older homes low counter to cabinet space. Reason is they can be bumped off there holding space. Also the sticky tape wouldn't hold to well near the stove for steam and moisture.	very convenient and ease of use without having to go digging through all your spices in the cabinet, but probably needs to be placed away from cooking area. (refer to above)	smaller size containers, colors choices to match kitchen appliances, use of screws for a more permanent placement. (see # 16)
Kristina Lear	20162835	The Magic Spicer is an okay product. The lid is a bit awkward when trying to get the spices out of the jar for use. The magnets used aren't the strongest, so if the jars get bumped, they tend to fall. Same if there are any bits left on the lid from using the spice.	Be able to hang the spices you use the most hanging right by the stove instead of having to dig through the cupboard for them.	A different top for better ease of use would be nice, and maybe a stronger magnet.	The company should include some blank labels for the jars along with the pre-printed labels.
Monica Goodfellow	51711065	This is an excellent product especially for people with little counter space. I love that most people don't even notice the spices hanging from the back of my cupboard!	Even any of YOUR favorite spices!	The labels need changing as they are a little hard to read, especially the ones for filling out non standard spices. The type blends in with the spice behind it when it's hanging from the cupboard.	Now that I've had one, I'd recommend this kind of rack to all of my friends over the wall mounts or spinning kind on the counter
Barbara Reynolds	50637254	THIS IS A GREAT ITEM TO FREE UP COUNTER SPACE, MAKES IT EASY TO USE SPICES, NO NEED TO LOOK THRU A LOT OF BOTTLES TO FIND WHAT YOU WANT.	HAVING SPICES AT YOUR FINGER TIPS.	IF IT COULD BE INSTALLED ON THE BACK OF THE COUNTER AREA, WOULD MAKE IT MORE USABLE IF YOU HAVE UNDER COUNTER LITES.
Lydia Watts	20091503	Easy to use	Convenient, right size for spices I use	Prefer to be colorful, to keep the spices from light.
Robin Witt	51215442	It's a good idea, but not executed very well. Tops were hard to turn to adjust holes and the holes themselves need better sizes.	Spices at your fingertips and off your counter.	A second setting with multiple smaller holes for finer spices.	Take the multilanguage off of the label and make it a separate label.
Corine Runnion	20127997	We have a very small kitchen and space is one thing we do not have the Magic Spicer is so handy and takes up very little room and can hold all the necessary spices that I need. This is a great product.	easy to use and takes up very little space, the Magic Spicer is great for space saving and easy to use, just love it!	Larger spice/herb names on a white background.	would recoment this product to everyone it is so easy to use and takes up no space at all.
Robin Anderson	20073748	It keeps my main six spices/herbs at hand at my stove.	Easy to use with no removal of screw tops.
Susan Sweetra	20087976	It only holds 6 spices. I need at least 10-15 for the way I cook.	Undercounter space saving	Make it bigger. Holds more variety.	Only holding 6 jars for $29.99 is too much money for too little spice holder- I think.
Donna Wickstrom	20092119	The magnetic rack affixes easily to the underside of a cabinet and jars easily adhere to the magnetic rack. They are extremely simple to use with one-handed operation.	Holes sizes are set when filing jars which makes them super convenient and time saving to use.	Labels seem a bit small (print size) and are somewhat difficult to read on jars filled with dark colored spices.
D Miihroth	20049012	The adhesive strip is excellent. I placed mine on a tiled surface and has held up very well. No fear that it will fall.	Excellent for your most frequently used spices.	This product claims, easy one hand operation. For me this was the only flaw, the dial to dispense spice requires two hands and is difficult to turn.
Tom Price	51509844			A certain amount of blank labels are needed in order to customize contents or to provide labels for spices not included in the predetermined labels. The 16 predetermined labels certainly do not cover all the possible spices that one may have to include in the rack.
Darlene M DeFrar	51522916	Excellent product as far as convenience and ease of use. I mounted mine in our motor home and it is fantastic! No more topping jars of spice spilled all in my cupboards after a trip.	Very ease to use for those suffering from arthritis and having trouble opening jars.		Thank you for the opportunity to test this product.
Wendy Colomby	20049488	This product is quite a good one. The fact it fits under a cupboard keeps your spices handy and easy to use. Being able to set the holes to a level of how fast you want the spices to come out is great, gives more control during use.		The labels are not easy to read. The english is printed in RED which does not stand out like black does, especially against some light colored spices.	I wouldn't mind buying another to place beside this one to add more spices. I like this product a lot and use it daily while cooking.
Joan Ricca	20001313	The uniqueness and accessibility proved to be outstanding. The size of the spice jars are perfect for keeping spices and herbs as fresh as possible. Having the ability to install this product underneath the cabinets made available extra counter space for preparations.			This also would provide a useful and nice gift for weddings and/or hostess occasions. I would purchase this.
Donna Hanson	20175696	Great product - I must get more!	Fits under counters nicely.
Lynn Schimpf	20154667			I think this should have little tabs on the lids to make turning open and closed easier.
Shari J Kanovsky	20084798	I really liked this spice rack! Instead of rummaging through my spice drawer for 15 minutes it took just 2 seconds to locate my most used spices.			Thank you!
